Celebrating International Women's Day at Walkway Over the Hudson

TERRY GIPSON July 24, 2013

Turned out to be a beautiful morning at Walkway over the Hudson, one of NYS's most beautiful state parks... a great venue for the International Women's Day event. Across the world, and even in our own communities, women still do not have full equality. I'm working to change that.

Joining me behind the banner as we began the march over the walkway: Linda Cooper, Assemblywoman Didi Barrett, Carol Goldsten, Rose Harvey, Manuela Roosevelt, Nick Shannon, Elizabeth Hart-Waldstein, and the Hon. Joseph Eggito, among the many.
