

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Terry Gipson

At NYS Capitol in Albany ensuring that the minimum wage standard is in line with reality

TERRY GIPSON July 24, 2013

People who work full time for the minimum wage should not live under the poverty level. We must ensure that the minimum wage standard is in line with reality. An increase to $9 will help businesses across New York because it will put more money in people's pockets. After all, small businesses need more customers