

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Terry Gipson

Discussing the Redistricting Amendment

TERRY GIPSON July 24, 2013

Our right to vote is one of the most sacred things that we have as Americans and New Yorkers. This Redistricting Amendment does nothing to help this right. In fact, it would add partisan rhetoric to our State Constitution and would disenfranchise thousands of New York State voters. Below is a photo of me explaining my "No" vote on the Amendment.