SENATOR MARTINS PROVIDES FREE I.D. CARDS TO SENIORS

JACK M. MARTINS   August 8, 2013

| ISSUE: LOCAL GOVERNMENT, SENIORS
| COMMITTEE: LOCAL GOVERNMENT

In cooperation with Nassau County Executive Ed Mangano, Senator Jack M. Martins held a program at the Williston Park Library to provide free I.D. cards to seniors. Nearly 200 were issued. The cards, which were given free of charge, include vital information. The program was so successful, there are plans to expand it to other areas of the Seventh Senate District. Watch for announcements of future dates and locations.