SENATOR MARTINS MEETS WITH CARLE PLACE SUPERINTENDENT DURING START OF NEW SCHOOL YEAR

JACK M. MARTINS September 5, 2013

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

Senator Jack M. Martins recently met with Carle Place Superintendent of Schools David Flatley for a discussion on issues concerning the Carle Place School District. The meeting was part of Senator Martins' listening tour with school district officials to hear about educational issues facing each individual school district. These discussions give the Senator a firm understanding of each of the needs and visions of the school districts that are located in the Seventh Senate District.
