Senator Valesky Cuts Ribbon on International Executive Wellness Center

DAVID J. VALESKY September 27, 2013

| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, HEALTH

Senator Valesky joined Rob Simpson, president of CenterState CEO, and representatives from the China Association for the Promotion of Private Science and Technology Enterprises to officially open the International Executive Wellness Center in the Tech Garden. The Wellness Center will connect people here and in China and advance the concept of medical treatment combined with tourism and business opportunities.
