

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Phil Boyle

Job Posting: Registered Nurse

PHIL BOYLE December 9, 2013

Good Samaritan Hospital Medical Center

Registered Nurse - Dialysis 3 ANNEX

Responsible for: the provision of safe and effective care to all patients on the unit; foster an environment based on Neumann's "Client System Model" and Watson's "Caring Model" of delivery of patient care and organize teams based on Benner's "Novice to Expert" theory; lead unit in providing direction and guidance; participate in staff development and training while performing as a mentor and resource person; act as a clinical coordinator in the absence of Assistant Nurse Manager and Nurse Manager, as well as liaison between the physician, patient and family.

*Current New York State License as a Registered Professional Nurse required. Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing preferred. Must have knowledge of departmental policies and procedures, regulatory codes, personnel and administrative policies. Minimum of 2 years' experience as a RN required. One to two years Med.Surg. Critical Care or Dialysis experience required.

*BLS/ACLS/PALS/AED training required and accepted from only 2 organizations: 1. American Heart Association-BLS/ACLS/PALS for Healthcare Providers (CPR & AED) Program2. American Red Cross - CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer No online programs from any organization will be accepted.

To apply, contact the employer on-line:

Web-site:

<https://www.healthcaresource.com/gshmc/index.cfm?fuseaction=search.jobDetails&template=c>