Honored to Receive MFY's Champion of Justice Award

BRAD HOYLMAN December 12, 2013

Earlier this month, I was honored to receive MFY Legal Services' Champion of Justice Award. MFY provides free and low-cost legal services to those in need and its programs reach individuals and families facing crises on a number of fundamental issues, such as housing, government benefits, employment, health care, consumer debt, and family law. I am proud of my strong partnership with MFY and am deeply appreciative of all the important work the organization does.
