Opening New Affordable Housing in Clinton

BRAD HOYLMAN December 12, 2013

I was pleased to join Manhattan Borough President-elect Gale Brewer, City Council Member-elect Corey Johnson, State Assembly Member Linda Rosenthal, long-time community and affordable housing activist Mary D'Elia and other local community members at a ribbon cutting ceremony for the Park Clinton, a 96-unit multifamily homeownership development on Manhattan's west side. It was an exciting day for our community, as permanently-affordable housing is essential to maintaining diverse, dynamic and vibrant neighborhoods.
