Preparing for Super Bowl Events

BRAD HOYLMAN January 27, 2014

Earlier this month I worked with the Mayor's Office and other elected officials to organize a briefing for affected community boards on the many events going on in our neighborhoods in the lead up to the Super Bowl this Sunday, February 2. While the Mayor's Office was able to allay many concerns surrounding these events, there may still be issues that arise. If you encounter any problems or noise issues, 311 will have a special Super Bowl Team directly connected to the organizers. Please share any concerns or complaints -- including the 311 case number -- with my office so that my team can follow up.
