

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

North Country veteran advocacy in Albany

BETTY LITTLE March 18, 2014

| ISSUE: VETERANS

A contingent of North Country veterans are pictured with Senator Betty Little in her Albany office on Tuesday, March 18. The veterans visited the State Capital to discuss numerous issues including funding for veterans' programs and the creation of a New York State veterans ceremony. Little is cosponsoring legislation to provide a state contract preference for service-connected, disabled veteran-owned small businesses. Pictured from left are: Mario Cristaldi, Joseph Proulx, Robert St. John, Randy Farmer, Senator Little and Clinton County Veterans Service Agency Director Steve Bowman.