

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Research by SUNY Plattsburgh students recognized in Albany

BETTY LITTLE April 2, 2014

| ISSUE: HIGHER EDUCATION

Three SUNY Plattsburgh students were invited to exhibit undergraduate research projects at the Innovative Exploration Forum in Albany on Tuesday, April 1. Pictured (from left) in the Well of the Legislative Office Building are Matthew Rusek, Michael Haynes, Senator Betty Little and Justin Andrews. The event featured more than 100 student-produced poster displays in a range of academic disciplines by some of SUNY's most talented undergraduate scholars.