

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

Senator Bonacic Attends Senior Volunteer Recognition Ceremony hosted by the Orange County Office of the Aging

JOHN J. BONACIC May 19, 2014

| ISSUE: SENIORS

Senator Bonacic attended and spoke at the recent RSVP Volunteer Recognition luncheon hosted by the Orange County Office for the Aging. The Senator recognized hundreds of seniors who continue to serve their community. Special recognition was given to William Denette who volunteers at the Round Hill Elementary School, and to senior volunteers at the Albert Wisner Public Library, Pine Bush Public Library, Hill-Hold Museum, Historical Society of Newburgh, and the Orange County Genealogical Society. Here is the Senator with Orange County Executive Steve Neuhaus; Orange County District Attorney David Hoovler; and AnnMarie Maglione, Director of the Orange County Office of the Aging.