

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

Westchester County Italian Heritage Celebration

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS July 29, 2014

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

During the summer, Westchester County hosts various cultural heritage celebrations at parks throughout the county to give residents and visitors the opportunity to experience the different foods, music, and traditions that each culture bring to Westchester. Senator Stewart-Cousins joined in on the celebration of the Italian heritage on Sunday, July 27th which was held at Kensico Dam Plaza in Valhalla, NY, spending time getting to know her constituents including members of the Order of the Sons of Italy in America, pictured here with the Senator.