Greyston's Oak Street Garden

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS August 14, 2014

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENTS CORNER

Fresh fruits and vegetables coming soon from Greyston's Oak Street garden in Yonkers

Nodine Hill neighborhood. The formerly vacant lot is being turned into a resource. Greyston is a nonprofit community development agency that has served southwest Yonkers since 1982. It currently operates six community gardens throughout the city, each of which has been created in partnership with the City of Yonkers and serves dozens of families throughout the year.
