

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John A. DeFrancisco

Senator DeFrancisco Helps Announce the 11th Round Grants for Growth Recipients

JOHN A. DEFRANCISCO August 18, 2014

| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

On August 18, 2014, at The Tech Garden in Syracuse, State Senator John A. DeFrancisco helped announce the nine new recipients of the Grants for Growth program. A total of $474,944 was awarded in the program's 11th round. The new investment will leverage $919,207 in matching funds to support emerging regional companies.

Grants for Growth is made possible through state funding secured by Senator DeFrancisco. The program helps to stimulate the local economy and create jobs through the successful collaboration between private businesses and academic and research institutions throughout Central New York.

Senator DeFrancisco, front row/center, is pictured with some of the Grants for Growth 11th round recipients and Rob Simpson, back row/left, of CenterState CEO.

Grants for Growth Round 11 Recipients are the following:

Ephesus - LED lighting company working with Syracuse University

NexID - IT security company working with Clarkson University

Avatar - Bio-chemistry company working with SUNY ESF

Euphony - Linguistics company working with Cornell University

Infinivation - Medical Device company working with Cornell University

MacKintock - Industrial Software company working with SUNY Cortland

Quansor - Water quality sensing company working with SUNY Binghamton

Tuzag - Ad Tech company working with Syracuse University

ZYMtronix - Bio-chemistry company working with Cornell University