| ISSUE: DISABILITY

Senator Bonacic speaks at the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new Oak Ridge Apartments in the Town of Wallkill. This $16.8 million project was a collaboration between Occupations, Inc., and Warwick developer Jonah Mandelbaum, who generously donated the housing project to Occupations for $3. This apartment complex will offer 77 affordable units, including 15 for people with developmental disabilities. (At left is James B. DeStefano, President of Occupations System of Care.)
