Senator Tony Avella is Sworn in for Third Term

TONY AVELLA January 8, 2015

(ALBANY, NY) Yesterday, State Senator Tony Avella was sworn in for his third term representing Senate District 11. A representative of North East Queens for over twelve years, Senator Avella was re-elected by an overwhelming majority this past November.

“I am honored to begin my third term as State Senator for Senate District 11. As Albany heads into a new session, I look forward to continuing to fight for my constituents and a more affordable New York,” said Senator Avella
