

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

Remembering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS January 22, 2015

| ISSUE: HUMAN RIGHTS, CIVIL RIGHTS

(35th Senate District - January 19th) Senator Stewart-Cousins spent the day remembering the life and contributions of our nation's most beloved civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Her first stop was the annual MLK Day Breakfast in Yonkers at the Nepperhan Community Center, followed by a stop at the James Harmon Community Center in Hastings where she participated in the singing of "We Shall Overcome," and later, at Tarrytown at the Foster Memorial AME Zion Church MLK Day Celebration.

Image not found or type unknown

Image not found or type unknown

