

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Brad Hoylman-Sigal

State Senator Brad Hoylman invites you to #5000TooMany A Rally for Homeless Youth

BRAD HOYLMAN February 11, 2015

Thursday, February 12, 1:00-1:30 PM, on the Steps of City Hall, we are calling on New York State to increase funding for homeless youth to $4.75 million this year.

In 2012, kids were turned away from shelters more than 5,000 times because there wasn't enough space – a tenfold increase since 2008 when funding was cut by 66 percent. This winter alone, more than 400 kids have been turned away. Our kids deserve a safe place to sleep.
