

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

Senator Bonacic meets with Students, and Representatives from Bassett Healthcare Network and the New York School-Based Health Alliance

JOHN J. BONACIC March 11, 2015

| ISSUE: EDUCATION, HEALTH

Senator Bonacic met with students, and representatives from the Bassett Healthcare Network and New York School-Based Health Alliance, today, in his Albany office. Both organizations work to improve the health status of children and youth by advancing and advocating for school-based healthcare. The focus of the discussion centered on the funding of school based clinics.

Senator Bonacic is pictured with (L-R), Paul Arandia, Mental Health Counselor at Bassett Healthcare Network, Arnold Whitehill (Student), Jane V. Hamilton, Manager of School-Based Health at Bassett Healthcare Network, Rachel Turner (Student), and Christopher Harper, Principal at Unadilla Elementary School.