Shred Day at Penn South Wednesday, June 3rd

BRAD HOYLMAN May 29, 2015

Securely disposing of documents containing sensitive or personal information is important to protecting yourself and your family. On Wednesday, June 3, join me, NYC Comptroller Scott Stringer, Council Member Corey Johnson, Congressman Jerry Nadler, Assembly Member Richard Gottfried, and AARP New York for “Shred Day.” This is a FREE shredding service and will take place from 3pm to 7pm (or until the truck is filled) at Penn South Co-Op (26th Street between 8th and 9th Avenues). Please limit your documents to three boxes per household. See the attached flyer.
