Senator Bonacic joined local fire companies, elected officials, and members of the Port Jervis community on Saturday, at the Port Jervis Fire Department's 165th Annual Inspection Day Parade. The Parade, always one of the best attended fire department parades in Orange County, runs right through the heart of the City. The weather on Saturday was beautiful, and the local community came out to support the firefighters who put their lives on the line every day.

Senator Bonacic is pictured with, (L-R), City of Port Jervis Mayor Kelly Decker, Port Jervis City Court Judge James Hendry (with his two children), and New York State Assemblyman Karl Brabenec.
