WE REMEMBER, WE WILL NEVER FORGET

MARTIN J. GOLDEN September 11, 2015

Today we continue to show evil terrorists across the globe that despite their cowardly attempt to destroy our great Nation, brave Americans stand tall. We are more united than ever, and we will continue to honor the memories of those who lost their lives on September 11th. Like all of you, I vividly remember the series of events that affected all of us fourteen years ago, and pride myself in saying that we are part of one of the strongest cities in the world. Our sadness on this solemn day will never cease, and for that, we shall never forget. My thoughts and prayers go out to all families who still mourn their loved ones, and my deepest gratitude to the brave first responders who gave their lives to save others. God Bless you and God Bless America.
