SENATOR GOLDEN'S OFFICE COLLECTING CLOTHING FOR TURNING POINT-BROOKLYN

MARTIN J. GOLDEN October 28, 2015

Turning Point Brooklyn serves as a stepping stone for the at potential residents of Brooklyn who have decided to seek ways to improve their everyday lives. Turning Point Brooklyn's mission is to serve as a source of hope and empowerment for the most neglected members of our community. Our caring, holistic approach creates a true, positive change in people's lives. Through integrated housing, education, health and social service programs, Turning Point Brooklyn provides the comprehensive support and quality care necessary for individuals to turn their lives around.

This holiday season we are collecting new clothing, including socks and coats, and toys to distribute to Turning Point Brooklyn participants and their families. Your generous donation will ensure that our participants feel warm and cared for during a time of year that is difficult for families who are needy. Please drop off your donation to Senator Golden's District Office at either of Senator Golden's offices at 7408 5th Avenue or 3604 Quentin Road, before December 11th to ensure that a person in need receives your help this holiday season."
