

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Martin J. Golden

SENATOR GOLDEN TO HOST CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTINGS TO BRING HOLIDAY CHEER TO THE COMMUNITY

MARTIN J. GOLDEN November 30, 2015

Brooklyn – State Senator Marty Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn), today is announcing his plans to host two Christmas tree lighting ceremonies this week which promise to bring holiday cheer and excitement, with Christmas Carols, a special visit from Santa Claus and hot chocolate for all.

The events are scheduled for:

Wednesday, December 2, 2015 starting at 6:30 p.m.

Shore Road and 90th Street at the Gazebo

(In cooperation with the Shore Road Parks Conservancy)

Thursday, December 3, 2015, starting at 6:30 p.m.

McKinley Park, Bay Ridge Parkway and Fort Hamilton Parkway

(In cooperation with the Dyker Heights Civic Association)

Donations for Toys for Tots will be collected at the events.

Senator Golden stated, “It has become a great tradition here in our community to join together to celebrate the holidays, and give thanks for all the good in our lives. I encourage neighbors, families and friends, to take part in this year’s Christmas tree lightings and help us usher in this most magical time of the year. No matter what you like best – hot chocolate, candy canes or singing Christmas Carols – a great time awaits you.”

Members of the media are welcome.