This past weekend, Senator Bonacic and his family, took in a spectacular night at the Orange County Arboretum's Holiday Light's in Bloom display at Thomas Bull Memorial Park in Hamptonburgh. The Arboretum was in full bloom with beautiful garden themed light displays in the form of flowers, animals, as well as Christmas trees and other holiday displays.

The Holiday Light's in Bloom is a free event, and a wonderful opportunity for families to enjoy a night out. Volunteer's from the Friends of the OC Arboretum are on hand giving away free hot cocoa and selling handmade crafts at their holiday boutique. For more information on the display, visit, <http://www.orangecountynyparks.com/>.

Senator Bonacic and his wife Pat enjoy some delicious hot cocoa at the Orange County Arboretum's Holiday Lights in Bloom.
