

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose M. Serrano

Senator Serrano Participates In The Bronx Opera's Production Of "Handel's Messiah"

JOSE M. SERRANO January 5, 2016

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

Senator Serrano joined The Bronx Opera and other elected officials for a presentation of Handel's Messiah at Bronx Community College. Senator Serrano served as one of the presenters for this annual holiday event and recited a passage to the engaged crowd. The Senator along with Congressman José E. Serrano, participate in this magnificent Bronx holiday tradition every year. Senator Serrano is a long-time supporter of the arts and serves as the Ranking Member on the Senate Committee on Cultural Affairs, Tourism, Parks & Recreation.

"I was happy to once again participate in the Bronx Opera's powerful production of Handel's Messiah. Many thanks to Michael Spierman for his unwavering commitment to music, arts and culture in the Bronx. Mr. Spierman's annual presentation of Handel's Messiah reminds us the arts are alive and well in the Bronx."