

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

Senator Bonacic Attends Breakfast with Cornell Faculty and Administration

JOHN J. BONACIC January 26, 2016

| ISSUE: EDUCATION, HIGHER EDUCATION

(Albany, NY)-Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) attended a breakfast hosted by Cornell University, today, at the Legislative Office Building in Albany. The breakfast was an opportunity for members of the Cornell University administration and staff to meet with members of the legislature. In addition, there were a variety of displays and exhibits, showcasing the various programs that the University has to offer.

Cornell University continues to invest in agriculture programs in Orange County. The Cornell Cooperative Extension of Orange County recently opened a brand new state of the art Education and Youth Center in the Town of Mount Hope.

(Senator Bonacic is pictured with Lorin D. Warnick, Interim Dean, College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell University.)