

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

John J. Bonacic

Senator Bonacic Meets with SUNY Ulster Administration

JOHN J. BONACIC March 3, 2016

| ISSUE: HIGHER EDUCATION

(Albany, NY)-Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) met yesterday with members of the SUNY Ulster Administration in his Albany office. The discussion focused on funding in the 2016-2017 State Budget for higher education, and other legislative issues related to Education. SUNY Ulster is a public two-year college located in Stone Ridge, NY, with an enrollment of 3,686 students.

Senator Bonacic is pictured with (L-R), Al Roberts, SUNY Ulster President, Lorraine Salmon, Executive Director of the Ulster Community College Foundation, and Bill Spearman, SUNY

Ulster Trustee.