(Albany, NY)-State Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) attended the New York State School Music Association's (NYSSMA) Annual Concert and Reception, last evening, in Albany. The concert serves as the unofficial kick-off to NYSSMA's annual Music in Our Schools Month. This year is NYSSMA's 84th year of service to the music students and teachers in New York. Throughout the month of March, music students from across New York will be in Albany to perform in the South Concourse of the Empire Plaza.

Senator Bonacic is pictured with Clayton Thompson of Warwick High School, who played his bass guitar at the concert
