

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

SITTING DOWN WITH SUNY: RITCHIE MEETS WITH PRESIDENT STANLEY IN ALBANY

PATTY RITCHIE March 11, 2016

| ISSUE: SUNY

State Senator Patty Ritchie met this week in Albany with SUNY Oswego President Deborah Stanley to discuss future plans for growing the college and improving educational opportunities for its students.

With a student body of nearly 8,000, SUNY Oswego has been regularly recognized for its academic offerings. Recently, the college appeared on the Princeton Review's "Best in the Northeast" list of recommended schools for 2016.