Senator Mike Nozzolio was recently honored by the Port Gibson Volunteer Fire Department at their annual dinner. Members of the fire department presented him with a personalized fire helmet in recognition of his many years of support to the Department. Senator Nozzolio presented special New York State Resolutions that were formally adopted by the New York State Senate to Lawrence Scott Jr. for his designation as the 2015 Fireman of the Year and to Howard Combs for his 65 years of dedicated service to the Department.
