New York State Senator Mike Nozzolio proudly welcomed Aubrianna “Bri” Lantrip to the State Capitol earlier today. Aubrianna, her mother Laurie and her brother Tyler were special guests of Senator Nozzolio who congratulated Aubrianna on her hard work and perseverance in winning first place in the High Jump at the New York State Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Senator Nozzolio presented Aubrianna with a special trophy and formal New York State Resolution that he enacted in the State Senate to honor her tremendous accomplishments as State High Jump Champion. Aubrianna and her family also enjoyed a tour of the State Museum, the Capitol and visited Senator Nozzolio's legislative office.

"Bri has exhibited excellence in the sport of High Jump through her strength, determination and commitment to her sport," said Senator Nozzolio. "I am honored to welcome Bri and her family to the State Capitol. As an accomplished athlete, she is an inspiration and role model to young people throughout New York State."
