

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph P. Addabbo Jr.

Addabbo to Hold Mobile Offices Hours at Forest Hills Library

JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR. April 26, 2016

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENT SERVICES

Howard Beach, NY (April 26, 2016) In his continuing effort to make it more convenient for constituents to reach him, Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. is kicking off another round of mobile office hours for this coming spring and summer.

Addabbo visits each library in his district multiple times per year as part of his ongoing commitment to personally assist as many people in his district as possible. The Senator will be at the Forest Hills Library, located at 108-19 71st Avenue, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, May 12 to meet with residents wishing to talk with him about a problem they may be having or to bring a community issue to light. By holding mobile office hours at different libraries throughout his vast Senate district, Addabbo makes it more convenient for constituents to come to him at a time that is easier for them and right in their own community.

“As an elected official, making sure I interact with the people I represent is one of my top priorities,” said Addabbo. “I have always urged my constituents to contact me if I can help them in any way, but it is not always easy for some people to do that during normal business hours. These extended office hours, held at night in various neighborhoods throughout my district, are an excellent way to make sure I am not only reaching as many residents as possible, but also making it more convenient by coming to them. I look forward to another successful round of mobile office hours over the next few months and, as always, encourage those who need assistance to take advantage of these library visits.”

Additional mobile office hours are being scheduled for future dates and locations throughout the district. For more information, contact Addabbo’s Howard Beach Office at 718-738-1111.
