

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Tony Avella

Senator Avella Meets With Whitestone Cadet from the United States Academy in West Point

ANDREI VASILESCU May 9, 2016

Queens, NY – On Wednesday of last week, State Senator Tony Avella met with Whitestone resident and Cadet Sean Monsees during the 64th Annual West Point Day in Albany.

Every year, the New York State Legislature holds a West Point Day where the future military leaders from the United States Military Academy in West Point visit the state Capitol. The annual tradition is meant to honor the service of the graduating Cadets and recognizes their accomplishments.

Cadet Sean Monsees is a member of the 2016 graduating class of the West Point Academy. A Whitestone resident, Cadet Monsees graduated Chaminade High School and majors in Psychology.