LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring Joanne Giambruno upon the occasion of her retirement after 20 distinguished years as an educator

WHEREAS, New York State's commitment to education is unparalleled; its history and stature are secured by the superlative caliber of its educational professionals and the students they inspire; and

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to acknowledge the significant milestones in the distinguished careers of those outstanding educational leaders, whose dedication and achievements have been instrumental in developing character and academic excellence in the young people of New York State; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Joanne Giambruno upon the occasion of her retirement as a Special Education Inclusion Teacher, after 20 years of dedicated service in education; and

WHEREAS, In September of 1995, Joanne Giambruno began her illustrious teaching career at Bellmore School District as a part-time Reading Teacher; one year later, she served as a full time fourth grade Special Education Inclusion Teacher at Shore Road School; and

WHEREAS, In 1997, Joanne Giambruno moved to Winthrop Avenue School where she held the position of Special Education Inclusion Teacher for second, third, and fourth grade for the next 18 years; and

WHEREAS, Educators like Joanne Giambruno provide a tremendous service to the future of our State and Nation, inspiring generations of young people in their educational journeys and ensuring their success in their future years; and

WHEREAS, Joanne Giambruno has clearly had an enduring impact on the youth of the Bellmore School District, as well as on the community-at-large, and accordingly merits recognition and applause for her impressive dedication to others; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to commend the efforts of those individuals who work to support our proud tradition of public education by providing their skills and talents to our schools; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Joanne Giambruno upon the occasion of her retirement as a Special Education Inclusion Teacher, after 20 years of dedicated service in education, and for her significant contributions to education in New York State; and to wish her continued success in all of her future endeavors; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Joanne Giambruno.
