Confronting Human Trafficking In Our Backyard

JESSE HAMILTON July 27, 2016

| ISSUE: HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Documentary filmmaker Danielle Rose tackles the serious issue of human trafficking In Our Backyard. An insightful, revealing look into a serious topic. Honored to join a distinguished group of elected officials, including Public Advocate Letitia James and Brooklyn Borough President Eric L. Adams, pursuing an upgrade of measures we take to confront this serious problem.
