

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose Peralta

New middle school in Corona aims to alleviate serious overcrowding in the district

JOSE PERALTA August 2, 2016

| ISSUE: SCHOOL OVERCROWDING, JOSE PERALTA, EDUCATION

State Senator Jose Peralta was quoted in an article published by the Queens Courier regarding the opening of a new school in his district.

Quees Courier: State Sen. Jose Peralta toured the school last month and said making the school a reality was a collaboration between community members and the city. “It was an uphill battle, but it was a battle our kids won to alleviate severe school overcrowding that affects the district, especially in Corona,” Peralta said. “This is a win-win situation, so I am glad we can close this chapter.”

Read the entire article by following this link.