As we get older our health needs change, but often times our habits—some good and some bad—remain the same. That's why we all need to recognize the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle, including eating the right foods, exercising and keeping our minds active and alert.

Each and every year, I aim to help local seniors take advantage of the services available in their communities to help them stay well as they age through my Senior Health and Wellness Fairs. Information on this year's fairs is as follows:

Oswego County Senior Health and Wellness Fair

September 21, 2016

Fulton Community Ice Arena

605 West Broadway, Fulton, NY 13069

St. Lawrence County Senior Health and Wellness Fair

September 29, 2016

Richard G. Lockwood Civic Center

141 W. River Street, Ogdensburg, NY 13669

Jefferson County Senior Health and Wellness Fair

October 19, 2016

Bruce M. Wright Memorial Conference Center

1291 Faichney Drive, Watertown, NY 13601

All Senior Health and Wellness Fairs run from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and admission is free. Once again this year, the events will feature a no-cost lunch prepared by local culinary students and more than 50 exhibitors at each location offering wellness tips, giveaways, health screenings, flu shots—with your Medicare or insurance ID —live entertainment and so much more. If you plan to attend one of my Senior Health and Wellness Fairs, you can save time and pre-register by clicking here, or by calling (315) 782-3418.

Taking steps to keep track of and detect changes in your health early on can help prevent serious and potentially costly problems down the road. That's why my Senior Health and Wellness Fairs have become so important to giving our local aging population opportunities to meet on-on-one with health experts to ask questions and receive informed answers.

In the weeks to come I'll be releasing more details on what you can expect at my upcoming Senior Health and Wellness Fairs, so be sure to check www.ritchie.nysenate.gov for updates. Hope to see you there!
