More Than 500 Seniors Pack Fulton Arena for Ritchie Senior Health and Wellness Fair

PATTY RITCHIE September 21, 2016

It was a day filled with health checks, wellness tips, fun and food for more than 500 seniors who packed the Fulton Community Ice Arena Wednesday for State Senator Patty Ritchie's annual Oswego County Senior Health and Wellness Fair.

"I am thrilled that so many turned out to attend Wednesday's event, which was truly a one-stop-shop for seniors to get more information about staying healthy and improving their well-being," said Senator Ritchie.

“I would like to thank all of our generous sponsors for making this event—which was bigger and better than ever—possible.”

At the event, more than 50 exhibitors were on hand offering screenings and information on how to stay healthy. In addition, “chefs in training” from Oswego County CiTi prepared lunches for attendees and entertainment was provided by “Anybody’s Guess.”
