Kaminsky Pens Letter to NYSED on Common Core Revisions

TODD KAMINSKY November 17, 2016

| ISSUE: EDUCATION, EDUCATION BOARD OF REGENTS, COMMON CORE

Senator Todd Kaminsky wrote to the New York State Education Department to publicly comment on their new draft revisions to the New York State P-12 English Language Arts and Mathematics Learning Standards.

Senator Kaminsky said, “While these draft revisions indicate that NYSED is willing to work with parents and teachers, I do not believe they go far enough. There remains a plethora of unresolved issues and until we have meaningful change that breaks the “one size fit all” standard, the public will not see the change that it truly desires.”
