30. Vendor Opportunity at Fordham Plaza

DOT has issued a Request For Expressions of Interest for short-term concessions in the Fordham Plaza. DOT will accept proposals through January 27, 2017 to attract retail activity in the plaza now through April 2017. Applicants who would be interested can set up shop with tents and tables. DOT may be able to provide additional furniture to the vendors only if they can maintain it. Vendors should be interested in setting up a stationary retail space several times a week, spread over the course of a couple of months. The Southern portion of the Fordham Plaza has a canopy so any vendor that applies for that space would just have to provide their tables and merchandise.

If you have any questions or if you want to complete the application, please email Rachel Ferrari at ferrari@nysenate.gov.

35. Sustainable South Bronx trains and employs Bronxites!

Sustainable South Bronx became a division of The HOPE Program, one of the top workforce development organizations in New York City. The first year of this partnership has included the following achievements:

Expanded the green jobs training to offer three cycles each year, enabling us to connect even more New Yorkers with careers

Grown the NYC CoolRoofs program in partnership with the New York City Department of Small Business Services to provide 70 transitional jobs to unemployed men and women and coat hundreds of thousands of square feet of rooftops with energy efficient coating

Re-launched our green social enterprise, Intervine, which provides job opportunities to graduates and contributes to a greener New York

We applaud this partnership as it helps folks as they obtain new skills and certifications in the classroom curriculum, gain hands-on experience in green collar skills, prepare for interviews, and celebrate their new jobs.

Green Job Training Opportunity

The Bronx Environmental Stewardship Training (BEST) Academy is now accepting applications for its job-training program, BEST 4 Buildings (B4B). After graduating, you will be prepared to enter the green collar workforce. The training is free. Upcoming program start date is January 16, 2017.

38. Interested in becoming a Substitute Teacher?

Applications for Substitute Teaching positions are only made available to individuals who have been nominated by a school principal, using our online process. Each school may nominate candidates for the position based upon the prevailing or projected vacancies (i.e., number, location, schedule, etc.) and the special requirements for some positions (e.g., foreign language proficiency, math, science, certification in physical education, etc.). If you are interested in becoming a Substitute Teacher, contact the school(s) of your choice directly.

Responsibilities of the Substitute Teacher

Substitute Teachers are utilized by the New York City Public Schools, on an as-needed basis, to cover the classroom in the absence of the regular (full-time) Teachers. The primary role of the Substitute Teacher is to continue student learning along the continuum, established by the absent full-time teacher. The responsibilities of the Substitute Teacher in the classroom may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Planning lessons
- Teaching students
- Managing the classroom
- Performing administrative tasks
- Promoting positive student behavior
- Ensuring the safety and security of the students

Pay Rate

Substitute Teachers, providing day-to-day service, are paid at the per diem contractual rate of $168.54 (as of May 2016), for the actual days worked; they do not receive any benefits. Click, for more information about the Per Diem Payroll Frequently Asked Questions.

Substitute Teachers are represented by the United Federation of Teachers (UFT).

Eligibility Requirements

The minimum eligibility requirements to apply for a Substitute Teacher position are the following:

- Online Nomination by a school Principal
- A Bachelor's Degree
- Proficiency in reading, writing and speaking the English language
- Authorization to work in the USA

For more information, please visit: <http://schools.nyc.gov/offices/dhr/subteachers>

39. It's Never Too Late! Free Adult Education Classes

Did you know that the NYC DOE's Office of Adult and Continuing Education, offers free adult education classes to adults 21-and-over who do not have a U.S. high school diploma or equivalent?
