Albany, N.Y., January 4—State Senator Tom O'Mara (R,C,I-Big Flats) took the Oath of Office in the historic New York State Senate Chamber earlier today to begin his fourth consecutive, two-year term representing the state's 58th Senate District.

The 58th District encompasses all of Chemung, Schuyler, Steuben and Yates counties, and a part of Tompkins County (the city and town of Ithaca, and the towns of Enfield, Newfield and Ulysses). O'Mara was first elected to represent the region in 2010 and has been re-elected by the voters in 2012, 2014 and, most recently, on November 8, 2016.

O'Mara also announced that throughout 2017 he will continue to operate district offices in Elmira and Bath, in addition to his office in Albany.

He encouraged 58th District residents to contact any of his offices for state government assistance throughout the coming year.

"No one should hesitate to contact our offices for assistance, to address concerns, answer questions, help facilitate access to state programs and services, or even just as a sounding board for suggestions and ideas for better government," said O'Mara.
