(Albany, NY)- Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I-Mt. Hope) joined farmers, friends, and community leaders this past Saturday, and delivered remarks, at the Delaware Valley Agriculture Society's Annual Luncheon, which was held at the Walton Firehouse. The event brought together local agriculture professionals, community leaders and public officials as a way to discuss issues facing the agricultural community in Delaware County. The Delaware Valley Agriculture Society has a strong presence in the community, including helping run the Delaware County Fair, one of the premier county fairs in the state of New York.
