Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset) recently sponsored a free youth basketball camp at Sewanhaka High School.

Approximately 150 children ranging in age from 3rd grade to 7th grade came to learn about the game and develop their skills, including ball handling, shooting, positioning, defense and footwork. Elmont High School graduate and professional basketball player Demetrius

“Amaree” Taylor led the clinic, assisted by members of the Sewanhaka and Elmont High School varsity basketball teams. The Long Island Nets also supported the program.
