

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Honors New York Farm Bureau President David Fisher

John Friot

February 10, 2017

State Senator Patty Ritchie recently honored New York Farm Bureau's new president, David Fisher of Madrid, congratulating him on his new role, as well as recognizing him for his contributions to the agriculture industry.

Senator Ritchie, who serves as Chair of the Senate's Agriculture Committee, presented Fisher, a St. Lawrence County dairy farmer, with an official Senate proclamation honoring him for his achievements.

(Attn. photo editors: Pictured from left to right are Kevin Acres, farmer and St. Lawrence County Legislature Chair, Senator Patty Ritchie, David Fisher and Jon Greenwood, farmer and Co-Chair of the Northern New York Agricultural Development Program.)