

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

Senate holding public hearings today on preventing elder abuse, and on the closure of the Indian Point Nuclear Power Plant ~ Both hearings begin at 10AM, watch live here

THOMAS F. O'MARA February 28, 2017

| ISSUE: ELDER ABUSE

Albany, N.Y., February 28—State Senator Tom O'Mara (R,C,I-Big Flats) said that the Legislature will hold two public hearings in Albany today.

Beginning at 10:00 a.m., the Senate and Assembly Standing Committees on Aging will hold a public hearing on "Education, Awareness and Prevention of Elder Abuse." View the hearing live HERE.

Also today beginning at 10:00 a.m., the Senate and Assembly Standing Committees on Energy and Telecommunications will hold a public hearing on Governor Cuomo's plan to close the Indian Point Nuclear Power Plant. The hearing can be viewed HERE.