ELAINE PHILLIPS March 7, 2017

Senator Elaine Phillips (R-Manhasset, pictured center) recently met with representatives of the Henry Viscardi School at the State Capital. Located in Albertson, the school serves nearly 170 severely physically disabled children from across Long Island and the region who cannot be accommodated at their local school district.

Senator Phillips met with representatives to discuss the invaluable services the school provides to the region, as well as budget and legislative issues affecting the school.
