Assembly Resolution No. 167

BY: M. of A. Miller ML

COMMENDING Sarah Moelis upon the occasion of her designation as a Distinguished Finalist in the 22nd Annual Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to act, in accord with its long-standing traditions, honoring the youth of today, and leaders of tomorrow, whose character and achievements exemplify the ideals and values cherished by this great State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, Sarah Moelis has distinguished herself as a young woman of superlative ability, establishing a high standard of community service, purposefulness of life, and sense of responsibility rarely achieved in youthful years; and

WHEREAS, The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards, created in 1995 by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), are designed to emphasize the importance our Nation places on service to others, and to encourage all young Americans to contribute to their communities; and

WHEREAS, Sarah Moelis, an esteemed resident of Hewlett, New York, and a senior at Lynbrook High School, has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service by receiving a 2017 Prudential Spirit of Community Award; and

WHEREAS, This prestigious award honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to their communities; this year, more than 31,000 young people across the country participated in the program; and

WHEREAS, Sarah Moelis earned this award by leading a team of programmers to create "The Magic Arrows," a computer application designed to help people with Fragile X syndrome navigate the difficult transition between activities; and

WHEREAS, After refining the application with help from 80 volunteers, Sarah Moelis shared her findings with many people at the 2016 National Fragile X Foundation Conference; and

WHEREAS, Sarah Moelis was inspired to create the application after discovering that a friend was diagnosed with the syndrome; this compassionate young woman generously donates all proceeds from the application to a foundation started by her friend's family; and

WHEREAS, The success of the State of New York, the strength of our communities, and the vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Sarah Moelis, who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is moved to honor Sarah Moelis, commending her for her outstanding record of volunteer service, peer leadership, and community service, recognizing the value of her labors and the promise of her future; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations, with praise and pride, to commend Sarah Moelis for her achievements and to extend to her the best wishes of this Legislative Body for a future of purposeful success and well-being; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Sarah Moelis.
